

MISSION COMMUNITY FOUNDATION 2012 BURSARY/SCHOLARSHIP GENERAL INFORMATION

READ CAREFULLY

Mission Community Foundation is pleased to announce that it is accepting applications for Bursaries and Scholarships. Mission Community Foundation reserves the right to refrain from making an award if, in its opinion, the applicant does not meet the qualifications specified either in this section or in the description of the award.

Candidates are responsible for obtaining, fully completing and submitting the 2012 Bursary/Scholarship Application Form (pages 8 -11) by the deadline. (4 p.m., Tuesday, February 28, 2012).

To fully qualify for awards from funds administered by Mission Community Foundation (or otherwise stipulated), well rounded candidates must:

- Be completing grade 12 from Mission Public School District; or attending school in another community and be a resident of the Mission community in the current year, .
- Have satisfactory school graduation credits. Academic standing is important to post-secondary institutes. Degree granting institutes may require a higher academic standing than a career college/skills training centre.
- Genuine financial need may be considered for some bursaries.
- Must be registered for 3 courses by September 30, 2013.
Unclaimed awards are returned to the Foundation after December 30, 2013

Funds may have restrictions and specific criteria established by the benefactor. The Committee will allocate available funding from the funds to the intent of the students anticipated trade or career path.

The Bursary/Scholarship Committee also receives applications and interviews on behalf of these organizations.

- Mission Business Professional Women's Club
- Aldergrove Credit Union
- Mission Health Care Auxiliary Society
- Mission Rotary Club

Candidates will be notified regarding interviews (April 2, 3, 4) and award allocation. Recipients of the Bursary/Scholarship awards will be announced at the Mission Community Foundation Bursary/Scholarship Awards presentation event, May 2, held at Clarke Theatre.
